

Entrepreneurial Traits Assessment Scores

Name: Thomas Conklin

Date: 11-28-2022

Instructions: Fill in the scores you received on the Entrepreneurial Traits Assessment below.

81

Determination

Determination is the strength to continue doing something even when it is very hard. High scores in this trait show that you deal well with stress and won't give up when things go wrong. Entrepreneurs known for their determination are: J.K. Rowling (writer of Harry Potter), Steve Jobs (co-founder of Apple), and Milton Hershey (founder Hershey Chocolate Company).

62

Independence

People who are independent know their own strengths and weaknesses and recognize when they need help. Having a willingness to set your own goals and make decisions for your future will help in every aspect of work or business ownership. Entrepreneurs with strong independence include: Benjamin Franklin (inventor), Phil Knight (co-founder Nike), and Steven Spielberg (movie producer).

81

Motivation

Motivation is defined as a willingness to do something and keep trying even if no one is encouraging you to do so. Motivation shows that you are willing to work hard, set goals, and strive to achieve whatever you want. A few entrepreneurs with strong motivation are: Oprah, Mark Zuckerberg (creator of Facebook), and Sam Walton (founder of Walmart).

86

Resourcefulness

Resourcefulness shows the ability to deal with difficult situations and challenges. At work you may encounter problems that you will need to resolve. People that are resourceful are willing to ask for help and find solutions to problems. Famous entrepreneurs who are resourceful include: Bill Gates (Microsoft founder), Richard Branson (founder Virgin Atlantic), and Jeff Bezos (founder of Amazon).

76

Vision

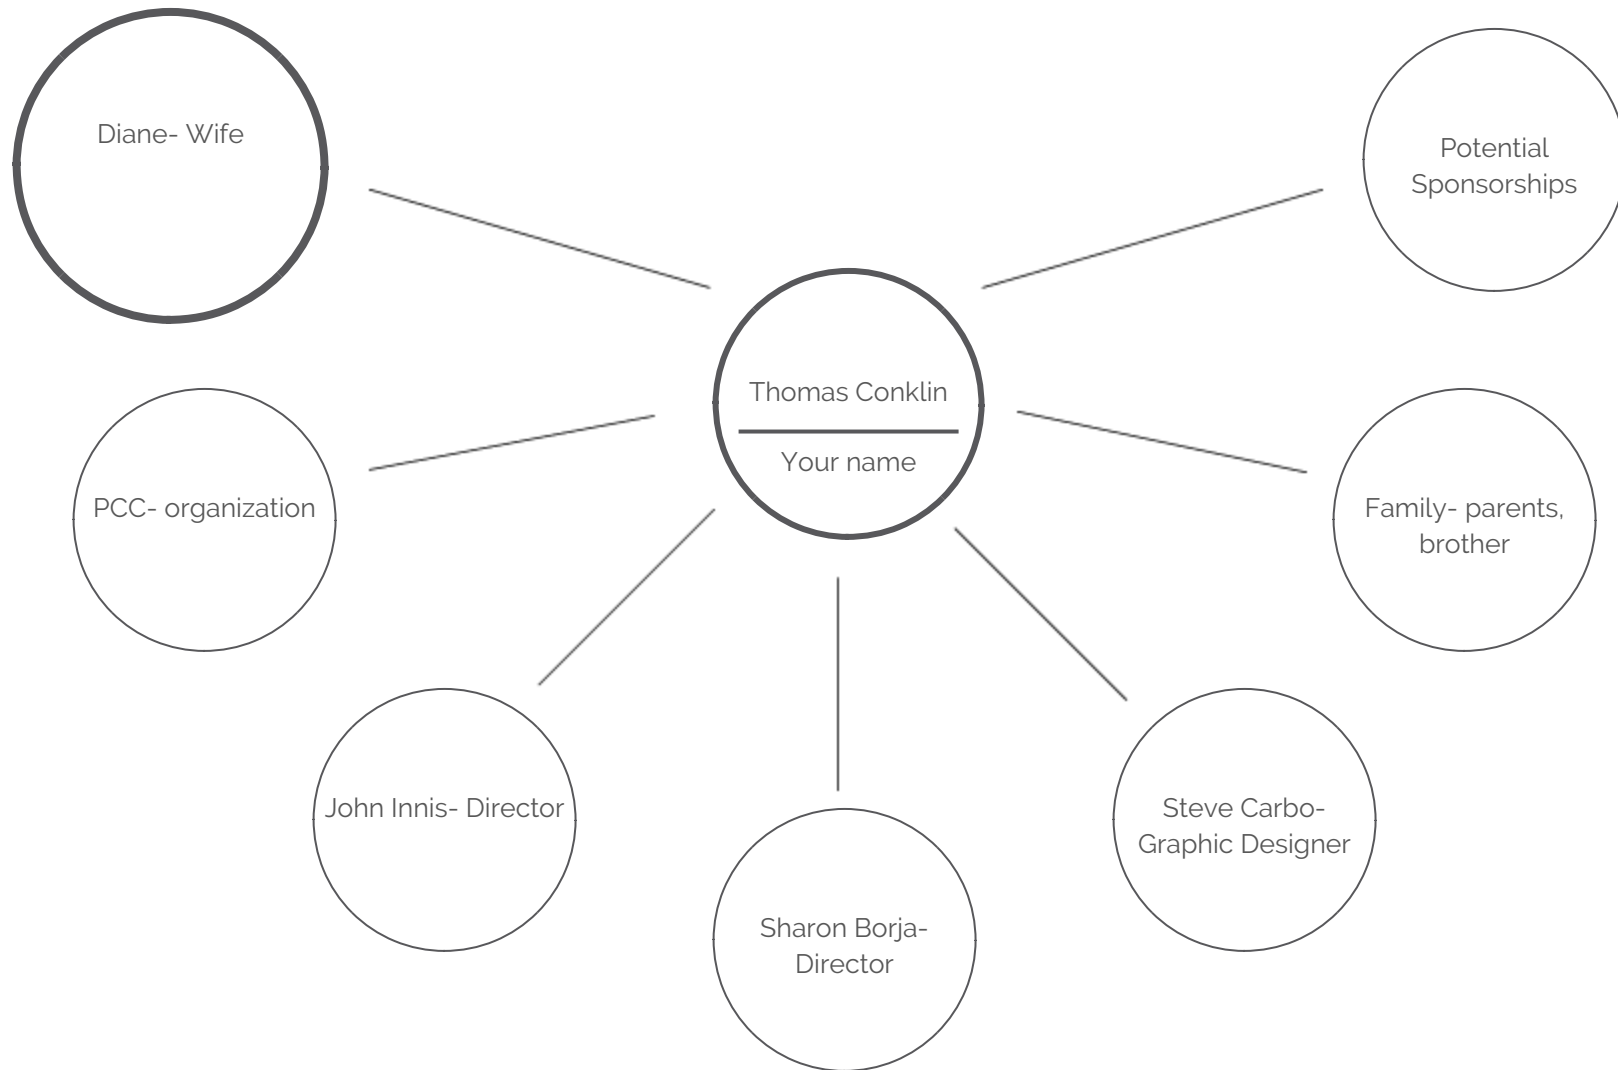

Vision is the ability to think about and plan for the future. This will help you explore your own creative ideas and generate solutions to problems. Without visionaries we would not have some of the most important inventions in our world. Some visionary entrepreneurs include: Thomas Edison (inventor of the light bulb and much more), Sergey Brin & Larry Page (co-founders of Google), and Walt Disney.

Support Network

Date: 01-11-2023

Instructions: First, start by writing your Main Support Person in the first box. Then, fill in the remaining boxes with people or organizations that will help you with your business. It can be helpful to write a very short description of who the person or organization is as well.

Work Environment Assessment Scores

Name: Thomas Conklin

Date: 01-20-2023

- 86 Accomplishment
- Being recognized for your contributions and achievements in the workplace is important to you. You should try to have regular communication with your boss and co-workers. As an entrepreneur, you will want to get feedback from your customers.
- 86 Connection
- You see work as a location where you can socialize with co-workers, make friendships, and help others in the community. You do your best when there are a lot of people to interact with. As an entrepreneur, you may need a co-working space or public place to do some of your work. You could sell products at a fair or farmer's market so you can meet new people.
- 100 Creativity
- Your work environment should allow you to express your creative talents, ideas, and imagination. You feel most valuable when you can showcase your strengths and skills. Many creative people find success as entrepreneurs.
- 41 Pace
- The speed at which you work and the pressure of your productivity is an important factor to consider. You may do best if you can work at your own pace with little or no time pressure. As an entrepreneur, you will be able to work at your own pace, which may be preferable.
- 86 Predictability/Structure
- It is important for you to have consistent responsibilities at work. You prefer having tasks, priorities, and schedules that are clearly defined and similar day after day. Having a consistent work environment will help you to be successful. You will have the chance to create your own predictable schedule as an entrepreneur.
- 71 Responsibility
- You enjoy having a role at work where you are making decisions and influencing others. As an entrepreneur, you will be the boss and will make most of the decisions for your business. This could be a great fit for you.
- 71 Setting
- The surroundings and location of your workplace are important factors for you. Most entrepreneurs have the chance to create their own work environment. Working when and where you are the most comfortable makes self-employment a great option for you.

My Self-Advocacy Traits

Name: Thomas Conklin

Date: 01-18-2023

Step 1:

Check the boxes of the self-advocacy traits that you have. Some of the checkboxes open additional questions that you will answer below.

My SMART Goal

Name: Thomas Conklin

Date: 01-18-2023

Instructions: Use this worksheet to create a goal you want to accomplish. You will first write the SMART goal, explain what makes it SMART, and then outline the steps you will take to achieve that goal.

Write down the 1 goal you want to work on.

Choose a new ACE(Adult Continuing Education) class to instruct within the next two weeks.

Explain how your goal meets the SMART goal criteria

Specific	Measurable	Achievable	Relevant	Timely
Selecting a new class to instruct is something specific.	I will either have a class selected by that end of that time period or I will not.	It is a realistic goal.	It relates to something that I need to do for work.	Within the next two weeks time period.

List the steps you will take to achieve your goal:

Step 1: I will review a catalog of past courses instructed to see if any of the last courses strike a personal interest of mine.

Step 2: I will think about and review any past courses that I have instructed and will give consideration to reteaching a course that I previously presented.

Step 3: I will research topics in the news, jot down concepts that would make a great course, and brainstorm ideas that I think would be of interest to others.

Step 4: I will share my thoughts and ideas with possibly a con worker, friend, but most importantly in the end, my supervisor.

Step 5: After receiving feedback and weighing out my options I will make a selection and choose the course that I will present next semester.
